A warm welcome to the award winning Rosslea Hall Hotel

Nestled in the charming village of Rhu, with stunning views over the Firth of Clyde and just a short distance from Loch Lomond, Rosslea Hall Hotel offers the perfect blend of traditional elegance and modern comforts. Whether you're planning a small, intimate ceremony or a grand, traditional wedding, we'll work closely with you to create the day you've always dreamed of.

Our hotel boasts two beautiful function suites, accommodating up to 148 guests, providing the perfect setting for your celebration. With breathtaking coastal views and our tailored wedding services, Rosslea Hall Hotel promises to deliver a wedding day that's truly unforgettable.

Our History

Built in 1849 by architect Mr. Walkinshaw, Rosslea Hall was inspired by his deep love for Italy. He designed the house in an Italianate style, choosing a location on the shores that reminded him of the Bay of Naples. To this day, with its distinctive bell tower still visible from the Rhu peninsula, Rosslea Hall retains that Italian charm.

The house was home to the Dennistoun family until 1923, when it was sold to Mr. R.G. Service, who lived there until 1947. During the war years, however, it was requisitioned by the Royal Air Force's Experimental Station for sea planes. From 1948 to 1973, the house passed through various tenants and, sadly, fell into disrepair.

In 1973, Mr. John Dick purchased the property and lovingly restored it, preserving the iconic bell tower and front façade, transforming it into the hotel we know today. To this day, our management and staff continue to uphold the tradition of impeccable attention to detail and quality service—hallmarks of a by-gone era that have helped Rosslea Hall Hotel flourish.
